

Code of Ethics and Conduct

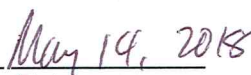

The City of Linn Valley adopts this Code of Ethics and Conduct to insure that all elected and appointed officials, while exercising their office, conduct themselves in a manner that will instill public confidence and trust in the fair operation and integrity of Linn Valley government.

Each elected official (Mayor and City Council) for the City of Linn Valley has a duty to:

1. Faithfully perform all duties of office. Respect and adhere to the rule of law and the principles of public administration while holding themselves to a high ethical standard.
2. Comply with both the spirit and the letter of the Law and City Policy. Members shall comply with the laws of the nation, the State of Kansas and the City of Linn Valley in the performance of their public duties.
3. Represent and work for the common good of the City and not for any private interest.
4. Refrain from accepting gifts or favors or promises of future benefits which might compromise or tend to impair independence of judgment or action.
5. Provide fair and equal treatment for all persons and matters coming before the Council. Listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions within established meeting guidelines.
6. Learn and study the background and purposes of important items of business before voting.
7. Refrain from disclosing any information received confidentially concerning the business of the City, or received during any closed session of the Council held pursuant to state law.
8. Decline any employment incompatible with public duty.
9. Refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character, motives, ethics or morals of other members of the Council, staff or public, or other personal comments not germane to the issues before the Council.
10. Respectfully listen to other Council Members and avoid interrupting other speakers except as may be permitted by established Rules of Order.
11. Faithfully attend all sessions of the Council unless unable to do so because of disability or some other compelling reason.
12. Maintain the highest standard of public conduct by refusing to condone breaches of public trust or improper attempts to influence legislation, and by being willing to censure any member who willfully violates the rules of conduct contained in this Code of Ethics.

I acknowledge and commit myself to upholding each of the statements above and fulfilling each responsibility described therein.

Cindy Smith – Mayor

Date

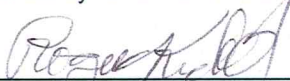

Code of Ethics and Conduct

The City of Linn Valley adopts this Code of Ethics and Conduct to insure that all elected and appointed officials, while exercising their office, conduct themselves in a manner that will instill public confidence and trust in the fair operation and integrity of Linn Valley government.

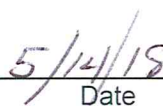

Each elected official (Mayor and City Council) for the City of Linn Valley has a duty to:

1. Faithfully perform all duties of office. Respect and adhere to the rule of law and the principles of public administration while holding themselves to a high ethical standard.
2. Comply with both the spirit and the letter of the Law and City Policy. Members shall comply with the laws of the nation, the State of Kansas and the City of Linn Valley in the performance of their public duties.
3. Represent and work for the common good of the City and not for any private interest.
4. Refrain from accepting gifts or favors or promises of future benefits which might compromise or tend to impair independence of judgment or action.
5. Provide fair and equal treatment for all persons and matters coming before the Council. Listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions within established meeting guidelines.
6. Learn and study the background and purposes of important items of business before voting.
7. Refrain from disclosing any information received confidentially concerning the business of the City, or received during any closed session of the Council held pursuant to state law.
8. Decline any employment incompatible with public duty.
9. Refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character, motives, ethics or morals of other members of the Council, staff or public, or other personal comments not germane to the issues before the Council.
10. Respectfully listen to other Council Members and avoid interrupting other speakers except as may be permitted by established Rules of Order.
11. Faithfully attend all sessions of the Council unless unable to do so because of disability or some other compelling reason.
12. Maintain the highest standard of public conduct by refusing to condone breaches of public trust or improper attempts to influence legislation, and by being willing to censure any member who willfully violates the rules of conduct contained in this Code of Ethics.

I acknowledge and commit myself to upholding each of the statements above and fulfilling each responsibility described therein.

Dennis Kidwell – Council Member

Date

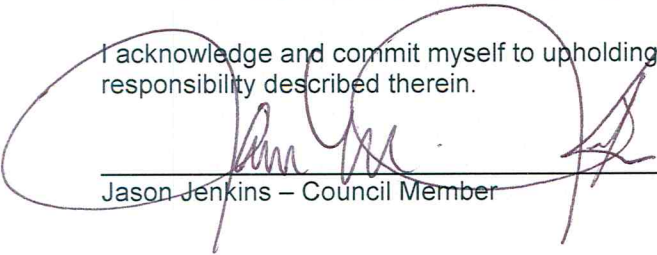

Code of Ethics and Conduct

The City of Linn Valley adopts this Code of Ethics and Conduct to insure that all elected and appointed officials, while exercising their office, conduct themselves in a manner that will instill public confidence and trust in the fair operation and integrity of Linn Valley government.

Each elected official (Mayor and City Council) for the City of Linn Valley has a duty to:

1. Faithfully perform all duties of office. Respect and adhere to the rule of law and the principles of public administration while holding themselves to a high ethical standard.
2. Comply with both the spirit and the letter of the Law and City Policy. Members shall comply with the laws of the nation, the State of Kansas and the City of Linn Valley in the performance of their public duties.
3. Represent and work for the common good of the City and not for any private interest.
4. Refrain from accepting gifts or favors or promises of future benefits which might compromise or tend to impair independence of judgment or action.
5. Provide fair and equal treatment for all persons and matters coming before the Council. Listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions within established meeting guidelines.
6. Learn and study the background and purposes of important items of business before voting.
7. Refrain from disclosing any information received confidentially concerning the business of the City, or received during any closed session of the Council held pursuant to state law.
8. Decline any employment incompatible with public duty.
9. Refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character, motives, ethics or morals of other members of the Council, staff or public, or other personal comments not germane to the issues before the Council.
10. Respectfully listen to other Council Members and avoid interrupting other speakers except as may be permitted by established Rules of Order.
11. Faithfully attend all sessions of the Council unless unable to do so because of disability or some other compelling reason.
12. Maintain the highest standard of public conduct by refusing to condone breaches of public trust or improper attempts to influence legislation, and by being willing to censure any member who willfully violates the rules of conduct contained in this Code of Ethics.

I acknowledge and commit myself to upholding each of the statements above and fulfilling each responsibility described therein.

Jason Jenkins – Council Member

 5/14/18

Date

Code of Ethics and Conduct

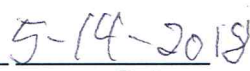

The City of Linn Valley adopts this Code of Ethics and Conduct to insure that all elected and appointed officials, while exercising their office, conduct themselves in a manner that will instill public confidence and trust in the fair operation and integrity of Linn Valley government.

Each elected official (Mayor and City Council) for the City of Linn Valley has a duty to:

1. Faithfully perform all duties of office. Respect and adhere to the rule of law and the principles of public administration while holding themselves to a high ethical standard.
2. Comply with both the spirit and the letter of the Law and City Policy. Members shall comply with the laws of the nation, the State of Kansas and the City of Linn Valley in the performance of their public duties.
3. Represent and work for the common good of the City and not for any private interest.
4. Refrain from accepting gifts or favors or promises of future benefits which might compromise or tend to impair independence of judgment or action.
5. Provide fair and equal treatment for all persons and matters coming before the Council. Listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions within established meeting guidelines.
6. Learn and study the background and purposes of important items of business before voting.
7. Refrain from disclosing any information received confidentially concerning the business of the City, or received during any closed session of the Council held pursuant to state law.
8. Decline any employment incompatible with public duty.
9. Refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character, motives, ethics or morals of other members of the Council, staff or public, or other personal comments not germane to the issues before the Council.
10. Respectfully listen to other Council Members and avoid interrupting other speakers except as may be permitted by established Rules of Order.
11. Faithfully attend all sessions of the Council unless unable to do so because of disability or some other compelling reason.
12. Maintain the highest standard of public conduct by refusing to condone breaches of public trust or improper attempts to influence legislation, and by being willing to censure any member who willfully violates the rules of conduct contained in this Code of Ethics.

I acknowledge and commit myself to upholding each of the statements above and fulfilling each responsibility described therein.

Brad Pennington – Council Member

Date

Code of Ethics and Conduct

The City of Linn Valley adopts this Code of Ethics and Conduct to insure that all elected and appointed officials, while exercising their office, conduct themselves in a manner that will instill public confidence and trust in the fair operation and integrity of Linn Valley government.

Each elected official (Mayor and City Council) for the City of Linn Valley has a duty to:

1. Faithfully perform all duties of office. Respect and adhere to the rule of law and the principles of public administration while holding themselves to a high ethical standard.
2. Comply with both the spirit and the letter of the Law and City Policy. Members shall comply with the laws of the nation, the State of Kansas and the City of Linn Valley in the performance of their public duties.
3. Represent and work for the common good of the City and not for any private interest.
4. Refrain from accepting gifts or favors or promises of future benefits which might compromise or tend to impair independence of judgment or action.
5. Provide fair and equal treatment for all persons and matters coming before the Council. Listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions within established meeting guidelines.
6. Learn and study the background and purposes of important items of business before voting.
7. Refrain from disclosing any information received confidentially concerning the business of the City, or received during any closed session of the Council held pursuant to state law.
8. Decline any employment incompatible with public duty.
9. Refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character, motives, ethics or morals of other members of the Council, staff or public, or other personal comments not germane to the issues before the Council.
10. Respectfully listen to other Council Members and avoid interrupting other speakers except as may be permitted by established Rules of Order.
11. Faithfully attend all sessions of the Council unless unable to do so because of disability or some other compelling reason.
12. Maintain the highest standard of public conduct by refusing to condone breaches of public trust or improper attempts to influence legislation, and by being willing to censure any member who willfully violates the rules of conduct contained in this Code of Ethics.

I acknowledge and commit myself to upholding each of the statements above and fulfilling each responsibility described therein.

Lew Donelson – Council Member

Date

Code of Ethics and Conduct

The City of Linn Valley adopts this Code of Ethics and Conduct to insure that all elected and appointed officials, while exercising their office, conduct themselves in a manner that will instill public confidence and trust in the fair operation and integrity of Linn Valley government.

Each elected official (Mayor and City Council) for the City of Linn Valley has a duty to:

1. Faithfully perform all duties of office. Respect and adhere to the rule of law and the principles of public administration while holding themselves to a high ethical standard.
2. Comply with both the spirit and the letter of the Law and City Policy. Members shall comply with the laws of the nation, the State of Kansas and the City of Linn Valley in the performance of their public duties.
3. Represent and work for the common good of the City and not for any private interest.
4. Refrain from accepting gifts or favors or promises of future benefits which might compromise or tend to impair independence of judgment or action.
5. Provide fair and equal treatment for all persons and matters coming before the Council. Listen courteously and attentively to all public discussions within established meeting guidelines.
6. Learn and study the background and purposes of important items of business before voting.
7. Refrain from disclosing any information received confidentially concerning the business of the City, or received during any closed session of the Council held pursuant to state law.
8. Decline any employment incompatible with public duty.
9. Refrain from abusive conduct, personal charges or verbal attacks upon the character, motives, ethics or morals of other members of the Council, staff or public, or other personal comments not germane to the issues before the Council.
10. Respectfully listen to other Council Members and avoid interrupting other speakers except as may be permitted by established Rules of Order.
11. Faithfully attend all sessions of the Council unless unable to do so because of disability or some other compelling reason.
12. Maintain the highest standard of public conduct by refusing to condone breaches of public trust or improper attempts to influence legislation, and by being willing to censure any member who willfully violates the rules of conduct contained in this Code of Ethics.

I acknowledge and commit myself to upholding each of the statements above and fulfilling each responsibility described therein.

Dan Davies – Council Member

Date